

Family Tree

Deb Strain

My husband, Scott, and I love to travel to shops and quilt guilds around the country and share my design process. We have done over 100 of these presentations and trunk shows! Over the years, one fabric collection is always asked about from the past....my Family Tree collection! Even though it is from MANY years ago, quilters always want to know if it is still available. So, we have decided to do a new version of this beloved favorite!

The panel provides a blank "Family Tree" to fill with birds (also provided) that can be personalized with names of those you love. I've painted this new version in muted watercolors, giving a softer, more updated feel to the entire collection.

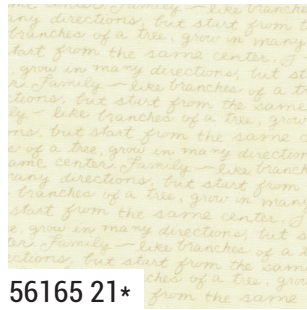

What a better way to create a family heirloom than creating a quilt, wall-hanging, or table runner about your family? After all, families, like quilts, truly are forever!
